Eligible applicants or their agents must fill out an application form, provide proof of financial support (bank statement or sponsor's letter), pay the non-refundable $ 150 registration fee and full tuition for courses of 4 weeks or less. A $ 150 registration fee is also due for each dependent on F2 visa. For courses of more than 4 weeks, the first 6 weeks of tuition must be paid upon enrollment. The $ 150 registration fee and tuition fees are due before TLA issues the I-20. The maximum total amount of F1 language studies at TLA cannot exceed 36 months. Students are required to pay a one-time, non-refundable SEVIS fee, directly to SEVIS. It is the applicant's sole responsibility to ensure that they have the proper identity document and to arrange for the appropriate visa to travel to the US. TLA may not be held responsible or accountable for the applicant's choice of visa or travel document or for visa services provided by agents or tour operators.

APPLICATIONS VIA AGENTS AND ETO (EDUCATIONAL TOUR OPERATORS)

TLA is not responsible for any fee(s) charged or services, including visa services provided by agents or tour operators who sell or promote TLA courses. Claims arising from differences in fees or additional fees charged by an agent or ETO must be addressed to the agent or ETO. Students who sign an enrollment contract/application form with an agency/ETO understand and accept that the relationship between TLA and the agency/ETO may affect their ability to receive a refund. Applicants understand and accept that TLA cannot be held accountable for visa services provided by an agent or ETO.

CHANGE OF STATUS: Applicants are required to pay a non-refundable $ 375 administrative processing fee in addition to the $ 150 registration fee at the time of application, in addition to the relevant tuition fees. A $ 150 registration fee is due for each F2 dependent. I-20s will only be issued after fees are settled in full.

CONFIRMATION AND PAYMENTS

After all relevant application documents and fees are received; the School will send a written course acceptance letter, a housing confirmation (if applicable) and an invoice for tuition and other services requested by the applicant or their agent. Payment without a signed application form will not be accepted. All payments are due 15 business days before the course start date. Students with outstanding balances must settle all accounts prior to being admitted to the course.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

F1 visa students must show proof of medical insurance upon arrival. Students may purchase insurance via TLA ($150/month/non-refundable). TLA will not be responsible for medical bills incurred by students in the US.

However, if an applicant accepted by the institution receives the I-20 and cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes, for any reason other than visa denial or change of status refusal, the institution will refund all monies paid except the $ 150 registration fee and a $ 275 administrative processing fee. If an F1 applicant accepted by TLA receives an I-20 issued by TLA, enters the US on an I-20 issued by TLA or remains in the US while awaiting for a change of status approval on a TLA I-20 and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never shows up for scheduled classes (no show), for enrollments of up to 12 weeks, TLA will retain four weeks of tuition and any non-refundable fees such as $125 registration fee, $ 275 administrative processing fee, courier fees and medical insurance.

Refund amounts will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA), based on the number of weeks completed by the student. TLA will count a partial week as a whole week if the student was present at least one day during the scheduled week. The date of determination (DOD) is the date when the student gives a notice of withdrawal or the date when TLA terminates the student due to the student's failure to adhere to the school's attendance, conduct, or student progress policy OR the date TLA automatically administratively withdraws a student after s/he has been absent for a maximum of 30 consecutive calendar days. All refunds are paid within forty-five (45) days from the date of determination. Students enrolled for 4 weeks or less will not be eligible for a refund. Students enrolled in a course of more than 4 weeks, who withdraw prior to or at the midpoint (50%) of their course, will be eligible for a prorated refund of the unused portion of tuition. Students withdrawing from the program after the midpoint of their studies are not eligible to receive any refund. Courses are intended as an uninterrupted sequence of weeks. TLA will issue all approved refunds only to the party who issued the original payment and by the same method of payment (credit card, cash, check, wire transfer, etc).

CHANGE OF PROGRAM AFTER START DATE

After the student has started classes, a change of program may be allowed, based on availability and only if tuition for the new program is at minimum equal to the original program. After the student has started the course, a change of program will be considered a new application and are subject to a non-refundable $ 100 change of program fee. TLA may cancel a course or part of it without notice. In case of course cancellation by TLA, you may be presented with the option to attend another course or to convert group classes to one-to-one lessons at a ratio of 5 group classes = 1 private. The refund policy applies (see refunds terms). Students on an F1 visa must always stay enrolled in a group program of more than 18 hours/week. The group classes to privates conversion rate is 1:5.

This administrative activity is costly. Applicants agree that TLA is entitled to retain the difference between what is paid to the housing provider and the fee paid by the student, as a compensation. A $200 reservation deposit is required when booking housing services. This down payment is deducted from the total housing amount due. After the booking has been received and confirmed by TLA, the cancellation policy is:
